From the Editor

My mother often says, “It’s an ill wind that blows no good.” The year 2020 seems to be a particularly ill wind, and we are just past the halfway point. One “good” might be the many new situations we had to manage, and the new problems we had to solve. As your editor, I cannot help but think that there has to be good teaching cases out of this

I am proud to announce that this is our largest journal ever – 20 cases! You’ll notice a particularly large contingent of dental cases, thanks to a team at MUSC. Much gratitude to this group who not only solicited the cases, but put together reviewers and lots of man hours (well, actually woman hours in this case) to make this happen.

I have never plugged a specific case before, but I’m going to urge you to read the first case in this issue. And before you think we publish just anything, take a look at the LAST case in the journal. This is some cutting edge case writing at its best.

And, last of all, thanks to all of you who have helped us work with our online submission system. We’ve had our issues with it, but we still are processing a lot of great cases. Thanks for bearing with us while we work out the bugs.

Susan Peters

Format Guidelines

Please read the guidelines completely before you begin. It is important they be followed.

THIS IS THE TITLE OF YOUR PAPER – IT SHOULD BE IN ALL CAPS – TIME NEW ROMAN (TNR) BOLD – 16 FONT - Left Aligned

Name of Author 1 – this should be TNR - 14 font –left aligned
Affiliation

Name of Author 2 (etc.)

Affiliation – if 2 or more authors are of the same affiliation – list the authors and then list only the pertinent affiliation – after all authors and affiliations are listed, skip a line and insert a line (as follows).

TNR 12 Italics

You should begin the abstract section by skipping a line below the above drawn line. The Abstract should be in TNR 12 and italicized. Both the abstract and the body of the paper should be full justified and single spaced. The Abstract should give brief description of the case and contain enough information to give the reader the basic premise of the situation. Abstracts should be no longer than a good paragraph or two. The abstract should not give the students any indication of potential recommendations or solutions. After completing the abstract, skip a line and insert a line.

INTRODUCTION 12 TNR BOLD

After skipping a line begin with your heading, whatever you want to call it (we used introduction here just because). Headings should be BOLD all IN ALL CAPS. Don't skip a line after headings. Always justify the body of the paper. Do not indent new paragraphs.

NEW PARAGRAPH

To begin a new paragraph, simply skip a line and continue with your writing. Within the body of the paper, fonts should be Times New Roman 12. You may bold and underline within the body of the paper but please use discretion here. Do not indent for new paragraph.
